

THE MONGOLIA SOCIETY

ANNUAL MEETING AND PANELS

The Mongolia Society Annual Meeting and Panels will be held on the Indiana University Bloomington campus when we meet in conjunction with ACES (Association for Central Eurasian Students). The meeting and panels are free and open to the public.

Friday, March 3, 2017

Extra activities you can participate in on your own.

- 1:30 pm Tour of the Tibetan Mongolian Buddhist Center, 3655 S. Snoddy Rd, Bloomington, Indiana. Please meet Tenpa monk at the temple, the Kumbum Chamtse Ling Monastery, for the tour. Parking is available at the temple. <http://www.tmbcc.org/>
- 2:30-6:00 pm Digital Humanities Workshop. Learning with R and Making Maps with ESRI. IU Student Building Room 221
- 4:00 pm Lilly Library tour by Jim Canary (Head of Conservation), 1200 East Seventh Street, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. Rare Mongolian and Tibetan items will be pulled for viewing. Paid parking is available at the Indiana Memorial Union on Seventh St.
- 6:30-8:00 pm Social Hour at The Venue Fine Art & Gifts. 114 S. Grant St., Bloomington, IN. Mongolian artist, Butedma Gonso's Exhibition Opening. Butedma began painting when she came to Indiana from Mongolia ten years ago. Her work reflects her life and culture. She is captivated with movement, storytelling, and capturing mood. Mongolian entertainment and snacks. Metered street parking is available.

Saturday, March 4, 2017

PROGRAM

Location: Student Building, Indiana University, 701 E. Kirkwood Ave., Bloomington, Indiana. The Student Building is the building with the clock tower, by the Sample Gates. For a map of Indiana University: <https://map.iu.edu/iub/index.html> Metered street parking or paid parking in the Poplars Parking Garage at 6th and Dunn.

- 8:30 am Registration/Continental Breakfast (Student Building Room 015)
- 9:00 am Annual Meeting of The Mongolia Society (Student Building Room 220)

Keynote Address: Ts.Namkhaibat, Counsellor at the Mongolian Embassy

Traditional Mongolian welcome by the Mongolian Cultural Association. Performers, Battsengel Gray, Tamiraa Macicak and Davaazorig Altangerel

US-Mongolian Relations (Student Building Room 220)

Chair: Tserenchunt Legden (Indiana University)

Panelists: Alicia Campi, (President, Mongolia Society), “Trends in U.S.-Mongolian Diplomatic Relations over 30 Years;” Erdenebileg Sandagdorj Borjigon, (University of Massachusetts, Boston), “Studying American-Style Accounting Implemented in Mongolia.”

Discussion: U.S.-Mongolian Relations. Questions to presenters and comments: Alicia Campi, Erdenebileg Sandagdorj Borjigon, Ts. Namkhaibat and Baasan Ragchaa (Diplomat of Honor of Mongolia).

12:15 pm Lunch provided (Student Building Room 015)

1:30 pm Contemporary Mongolian Democracy and Economics (Student Building Room 220)

Chair: Alicia Campi

Panelists: Otgontuya Langan and M. Enkhтуул, (National Academy of Governance), “Decentralization in Mongolia: Current Situation and Challenges;” Delgerjargal Uvsh, (University of Wisconsin, Madison), “Effects of Natural Resource Dependence on Democracy in Mongolia;” Badmaarag Chuluun, (National University of Mongolia), “Corporate Governance and Human Rights.”

3:15 pm Mongolian Linguistics and the Future of Mongolian Studies (Student Building Room 220)

Chair: TBA

Panelists: György Kara, (Indiana University), “Sagang Sechen’s Verses Revisited;” Tserenchunt Legden, “Teaching Pronunciation: Word and Sentence Stress in Mongolian;” Otgon-Erdene Eldev-Ochir, (National University of Mongolia, Orkhon School), “Some Features of Concept “TIME” in Mongolian Poetry Metaphor;” Erdenebolor Dashdorj, (Wonders of the Del Mountain NGO) “Petroglyphs of the “Del” Mountain;” Batjargal Badamjav, (“Pax Mongolica” Cultural Academy), “Second Republican Conference of Young Workers of Art: Proclamation of Anti-Soviet Ideology of Mongols.”

6:15-8:00 pm Closing Remarks and Dinner at the Mathers Museum of World Cultures
(416 North Indiana Avenue, Bloomington, Indiana)
Mongolian Cultural Association performers.

Co-hosted by: The Mongolia Society, the Department of Central Eurasian Studies, Mongol American Cultural Association, ACES (Association for Central Eurasian Students) and IUSA.